

English is mandatory for all students from Kindergarten to Year 12. We offer NESA course options to suit all students.

Years 11 & 12

English Extension 1 & 2

English Advanced

English Standard

English Studies

English Life Skills

Years 7, 8, 9 & 10

We offer a variety of class groupings to support students in the junior school; including opportunities to boost literacy, to work with a mainstream group, and to be extended.

Write Around the Murray Festival - student workshops

What Matters Writing Competition

Public Speaking and Debating

ALARM / PETEL essay writing

At AHS, our English lessons challenge students to become critical and creative thinkers.

We are dedicated professionals who work effectively as a team, maintaining high expectations and supporting all students to succeed.

Albury High School
English Faculty

The Dorothy Simmons Creative Writing Prize

- Annual prize
- Open to Years 7-12
- A celebration of writing

2022
Winners

First Prize $700

Highly Commended
$300

1. Reading

We read a variety of texts, including fiction and non-fiction, giving students the opportunity to consider new perspectives.

2. Responding

We actively teach students comprehension skills, including 'before-during-after' reading strategies.

3. Writing

We provide guidance on writing in the imaginative, discursive, persuasive, and informative writing styles.

Shakespeare and other quality literature

Shakespeare's works still teach us about the human experience today.

We host the Bell Shakespeare Company each year, as they travel from Sydney to perform at our Performing Arts Centre.

